

Privacy Policy

Thank you for visiting www.cureforcole.com web site. We're pleased to share our policy regarding the use of data collected here. We are committed to protecting your privacy, and the security of the information that you may provide to us.

We do not track individual users. Your e-mail address or other personal information is not collected unless you provide it on a form or survey. We will not exchange, rent or sell information regarding site visitors (including e-mail addresses, mailing addresses or telephone numbers) to outside parties.

We collect information about the domain names of servers that bring visitors to our site. We count the number of visitors and keep track of where they go on our site. To gather such data we use, as do most sites, "cookie" technology which collects data in aggregate form, not by individual user. The cookies do not gather personal information about you, do not provide any way for us to contact you, and do not get information about your computer; cookies simply allow us to enhance our site by letting us know what sections are visited most frequently.

We collect statistical information such as page views on an aggregated basis, through a "Log Analysis" program of site statistics. Such information allows us to find out what areas users visit most frequently and what services users access the most. It also allows us to create a better overall experience for our users. We use IP addresses to analyze trends, administer the site, track user's movement, and gather broad demographic information for aggregate use. IP addresses are not linked to personally identifiable information.

Should any visitors choose to follow links from our site to third-party web sites, it will be with the understanding that those sites are not related to our site and therefore we are not responsible for their content or privacy practices.

We may update these privacy policies periodically, and we encourage visitors to review them on a regular basis.
